

How did you do?

ACROSS

- 2 A term for a group of bees who are looking to find a new home.
- 4 Something harvested by beekeepers close to home, thought to help with allergies.
- 7 Often white, winter-blooming flowers that provide vital food for bees.
- 8 The process bees assist in to help plants reproduce.
- 12 A non-native winged predator that is a threat to European honeybees.

DOWN

- 1 A parasitic mite that threatens bee colonies
- 3 Honey is often used to soothe symptoms of this common ailment.
- 5 The scientific name for the European honeybee.
- 6 A resinous substance bees use to seal and protect their hives.
- 9 The abbreviated term for a small colony of bees.
- 10 Something a honeybee can do when she feels the need to defend.
- 11 The collective term for bee larvae and pupae.